

Community participation in site interpretation: Brú na Bóinne

Clare Tuffy - OPW

AN BPAI AGUS SHUNASHI NA OCEANNA TNA
CÉASTA BLAIN.

AN BPAI AGUS SHUNASHI NA OCEANNA TNA
CÉASTA BLAIN.

passage lands of Kesh, Newgrange and Dowry
are built and modified in stages over hundreds of years.

passage lands of Kesh, Newgrange and Dowry
are built and modified in stages over hundreds of years.

School Children

Events should be of a cultural nature that in some way reflect, explore or illuminate some aspect of the meaning or archaeology of Brú na Bóinne. Alternatively, events should demonstrate traditional crafts or activities. It is up to the applicant to demonstrate the relevance of their project in this regard.

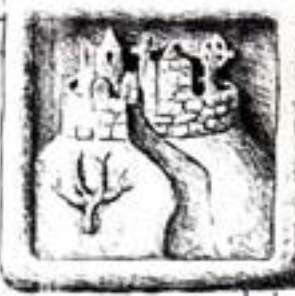

The Mound of the Hostages.
New Insights into Old Excavations.
Dr. Muiris O'Sullivan
Wednesday, November 3rd.

Brú na Bóinne

8 p.m.

The Night Sky at Knowth

Wednesday March 4th

8.00pm until 10.00pm

Meet at Knowth National Monument

Stargazing if sky is clear

Talk on Astronomy if sky is cloudy

Places are limited -

Book by emailing brunaboinne@opw.ie

Wear sensible shoes and dress warmly

Bring a torch to find your way to the site

Over 12's only

Certified Guide/Assist dogs only

OPW in association with the Irish Astronomical Society

BRÚ NA BÓINNE

